

DRAGAAN

The Ohio native is an artist praised by Cleveland Scene Magazine as a “prolific artist”, Dragaan is a visionary songwriter genre-defying and pushing the boundaries of musical expression and providing audiences with high doses of eclectic display and familiarity in equal measure. Dragaan brings his powerful vocals to resonate with his audience. The music is filled with pulsating drums, rich vocal harmonies, and hypnotizing guitar melodies; which allows for alternative indie to meet and dance with Latin, RnB, Pop, Hip Hop, and everything in between.
